Marjorie was born in California and moved to Maine as a young teenager, graduating from Cape Elizabeth High School. She attended Glenn Cove Bible College and then earned a MS in Library Science in 1987. She attained further training in archival studies during succeeding furloughs. She worked with Wycliffe Bible Translators since 1970 in the Philippines, mainly as librarian and later as an archivist. She transitioned to working with SIL International, (Wycliffe's partner organization) in Washington DC assisting in office responsibilities and archiving past documents. She is now able to assist with her elderly parents. In 2016, she cut back to half-time hours and is considering her retirement date.

Birthday: November 10

First EFC of Maine has supported Marjorie since 1970.
